

Dear Judge Conrad

My name is Corvain Cooper, I am 36 years old and I am currently serving a "life sentence" without the possibility of parole for distribution of marijuna, money laundering and tax evasion.

I am a father of (2) beautiful daughters who is currently 6 years old and (10) years old who really need me in their lives. I feel proud to say I am their "father" because one of my greatest accomplishments in their life was and still is being a "real father" to my kids and not just a "baby daddy."

I am writing because I am a non-violent marijuna offender serving a life sentence. I have never committed a violent crime in my life. I was convicted based solely on the testimony of (4) Co-Defendants who were trying to get a sentence reduction based off of their testimony. No actual witnesses saw me commit any crime, I could not afford effective assistance of counsel and by exercising my constitutional right to trial I lost my life to prison and more importantly I lost the opportunity to be in my kids life. The true "kingpins" of this marijuna operation got off with little to no prison time, I on the other hand am condemned to die in prison unless I am granted clemency.

I have completed several rehabilitative programs during my three years at Atwater U.S.P. consisting of Money Smart, Drug Education, Crochet class, Investments and Influence class. I am currently enrolled in parenting class, I have never recieved a disciplinary infraction since I have been incarcerated of which I am very proud of. I have also written three books and have plans on using my "experience of having my "life taken away" to help the youth thats growing up making the wrong decisions. Judge Conrad if you give me a second chance at my life I not only promise you because I know if you do or dont you wont benefit ^{ADM}form it but you will not regret your decision and will be able in the future to use my experience as a success story.

See Sentencing transcripts in this case where the Court said "Mr. Megaro, Im sympathetic to your argument. I would want to have discretion before imposing a life sentence. The absence of discretion is a troubling thing for the court. But it appears to the Court that from a statutory standpoint, the "I's" have been dotted, the "T's" have been crossed. The imposition of a mandatory life sentence is what congress has provided for someone who has been found guilty of this offense with the priors that Mr. Cooper has. From a constitutional sense, it does appear to me that the Fourth Circuit has spoken in this area and has upheld the constitutionality of a mandatory life sentence for a crime such as this in the Kratsas case, and in the unpublished Sylvester case cited by the Government. Im going to overrule the Eighth Amendment challenge in light of that case law. Having done that, you having preserved your constitutional challenge, do you still wish to be heard on the guideline issues?"....

I am asking you to please help me, I want to bring light to the fact that there are people like me, sentenced to spend the rest of their natural lives in prison over non-violent marijuna offenses and that this country is still giving out life sentences for marijuna-only offenses. I was sentenced in 2014 and I was given a life sentence.

Thank you for considering my case.

Respectfully,

Corvain Cooper #64301-112
